

Conversations to Remember: 2022 Directions

Conversations to Remember ended 2021 on a strong note and has even more in store for 2022. Learn more about the first annual Talk-a-thon's success and C2R's future plans here!

2022

Read more...

Dementia Research and Innovation in 2022

New research about the causes of dementia and possible preventative methods looks promising in the new year. A lot of advancements are being made in terms of earlier diagnosis of dementia to better improve prevention.

Read more...

Volunteer Spotlight

Blaize Shiebler is a third-year student at Ohio State University. She started volunteering with Conversations to Remember in December 2020, and is now a senior volunteer.

Read more...

Community Spotlight

Aileen Gaddi has over a decade of experience working at senior living communities, and now works at Regency Palms Long Beach, in Long Beach, CA.

Read more...

